Homecoming Week '84 began on Thursday night with the annual bonfire pep rally held at the football field. The CHS Marching Band and Majorettes marched from Main Street to the park playing the Fight Song. Once there, the cheerleaders and community helped boost the spirit. The bonfire ended with the playing and singing of the School Song. Friday night the Crawford Pirates tackled Class AA power Academy in the Homecoming game. After leading at halftime, the Pirates eventually lost out 17-7. During halftime Amy Hoehn was named Homecoming Sweetheart. Saturday was a day for class reunions and to renew old acquaintances.

Hey guys ... look at my muscles.

Everybody say, "Cheese".

Hey now ... What's this?

What a view!!!

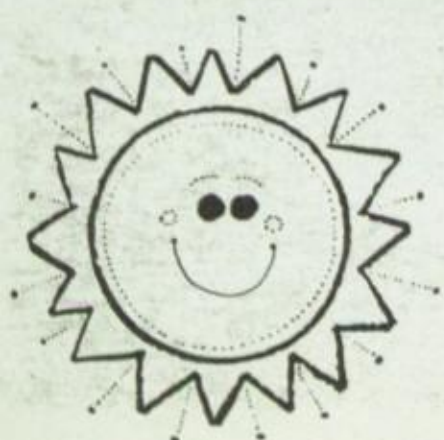

United we stand - I hope we don't fall.

I think I'll have the Fritos.

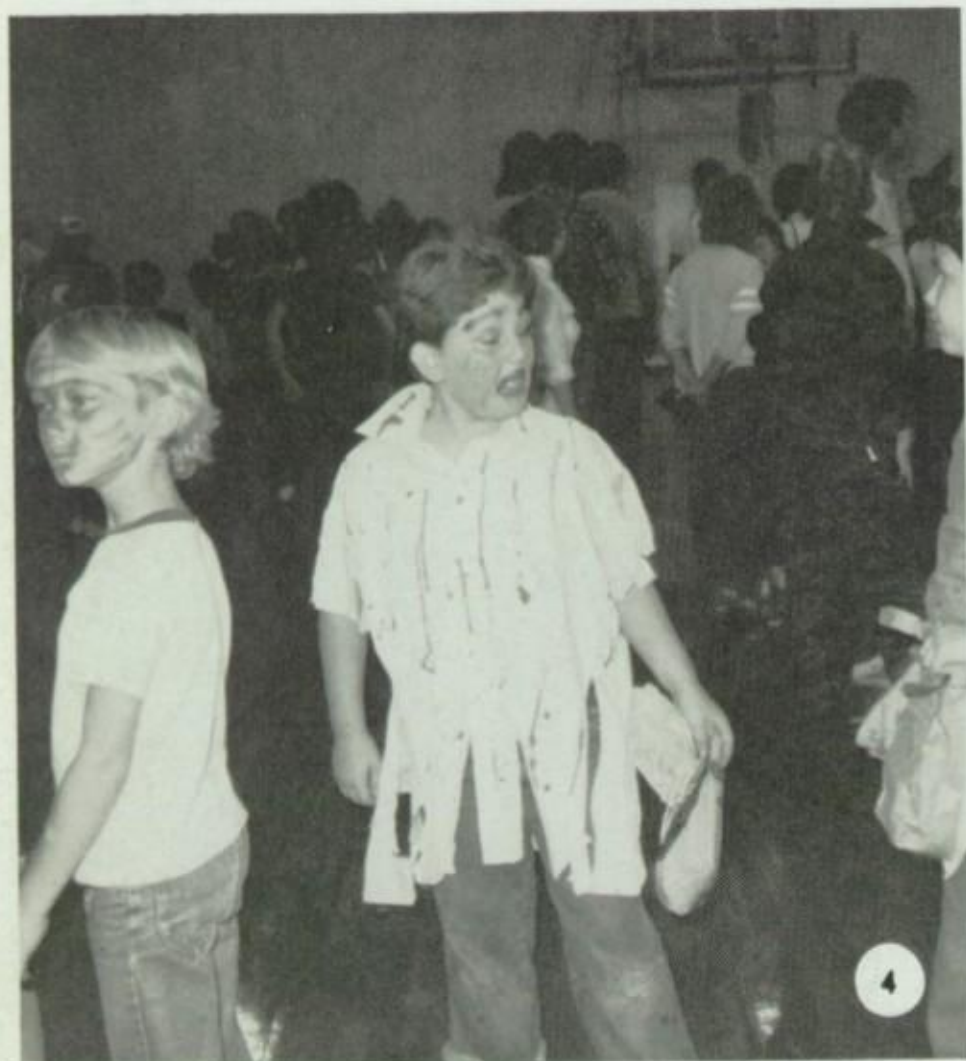

We're not posing - We always stand this close together.

6. Looks like they are having fun.
7. "... But, this is my costume!"

A black and white photograph of a cluttered desk. In the foreground, a spiral-bound notebook is open, showing a page with a grid pattern and handwritten notes. A pen lies on the desk to the left of the notebook. To the right of the notebook is a small, dark cup. Behind the notebook, there are several papers and a small, dark object. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a wall or a large bookshelf. The word "FACULTY" is printed in a large, serif font in the upper left corner of the image.

The 1984 Crawford Pirates experienced a year that will long be remembered. For the first time in 11 years, the Pirates advanced into the playoffs. Crawford began the year under the direction of new head coach, Pat Gresham. The Pirates completed non-district action with a '2-3 record. Crawford opened district with a 20-14 win over Chilton and a 14-14 tie with Valley Mills. Meridian was next on the list. The Pirates came out short this time by a 26-0 count. The regular season concluded with 42-22 and 14-0 wins over B-Eddy and Riesel respectively. Then it was on to the playoffs. Crawford was pitted against the state-ranked Granger Lions. Not many people gave the Pirates a chance in this game, but Crawford shocked the Lions and came away with a well-deserved 14-0 win. The Pirates were in Georgetown Thanksgiving weekend to battle Runge. Crawford was behind by only a 6-0 count at halftime, but Runge took charge in the second half and ended the Pirates' season with a 34-0 loss. Only four seniors are graduating from this year's team, so it should be another good year next year. Either way, 1984 will always be remembered as "The Year Of The Pirates."

Even though the JV did not enjoy a winning season, they hung tough in every game and always displayed true Pirate Spirit. Many games were decided by only a touchdown, and if the Pirates could have gotten a break here and there, a few wins would have resulted.

CJH FOOTBALL

This year's Jr. High Football team had a good year and spent weeks of hard work and sweat preparing for their competition. They ended the year with an outstanding record of 5-2-1. The team was superbly coached by Gary Walker and Ronnie Bruce.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The Crawford Football Banquet took place in the gym on Saturday, January 12, 1985. The cheerleaders worked very hard to prepare for the annual event. Tim Brooks was chosen Mr. Touchdown by the Pep Squad, Cheerleaders, and Major-ettes. Marvin Kegerreis was awarded Most Improved Player, Kevin Westerfield received Best Defensive Player. Kevin Engelbrecht was chosen Best Offensive Player. The recipient of the C. K. Burns Award was Tim Brooks. It was awarded by Mrs. Burns. The guest speaker for the evening was Pat Davis, the assistant coach for TCU.

SCORE TWO!

The Pirates of '84-'85 recorded a 12-10 season record and a 6-4 district mark, earning them 3rd place honors in District 54-A. The team participated in three tournaments this year, taking 3rd place honors at B-Eddy and the 2nd place trophy at the Crawford tournament. Greg Holmes made the All-Tournament team at the China Spring tournament. Holmes and Greg Culverhouse were All-Tournament at B-Eddy, and Holmes and Rick Gauer were All-Tournament at Crawford. In the All-District selections, Holmes and Gauer were named to the All-District team, while Culverhouse, Tim Brooks, and Paul Valentine made the Honorable Mention squad. Holmes also went on to be named to the 3rd team All-Regional team and Honorable Mention Super Centex team. Throughout district play, the Pirates averaged 55.1 points per game, while allowing 54 points per game. In district action the starting players averages were: Holmes-23.8, Gauer-12.6, Culverhouse-7.9, Valentine-6.1, and Brooks-1.7. The Pirates began this season with two impressive showings in the China Spring tournament, despite having only practiced for two days prior to the tournament. The season ended in dramatic fashion with a last second 41-39 win over rival Valley Mills.

SCORE!

B I D I S T R I C T C H A M P S

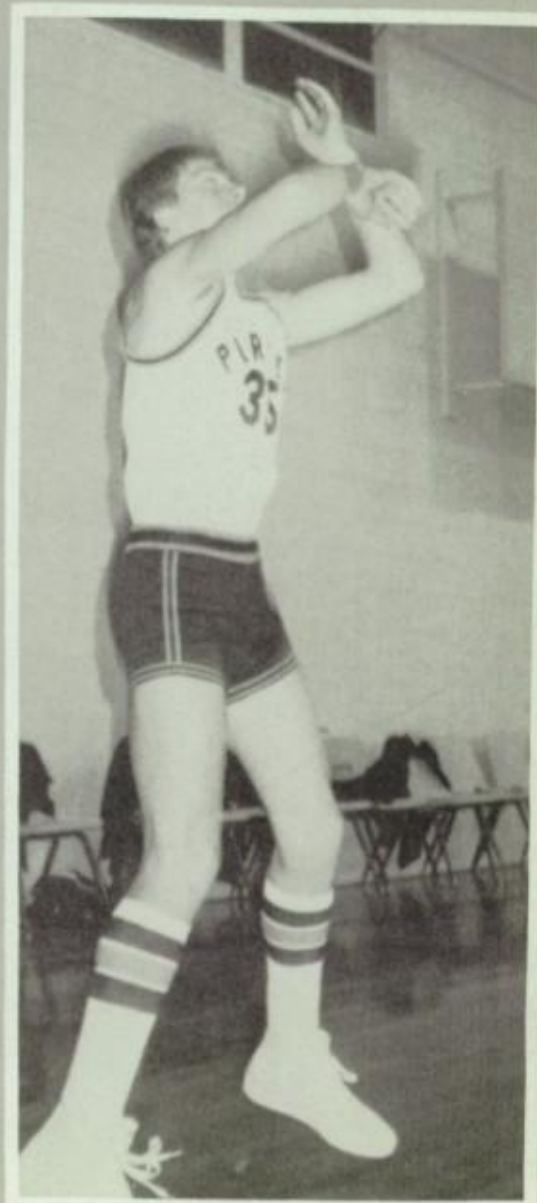

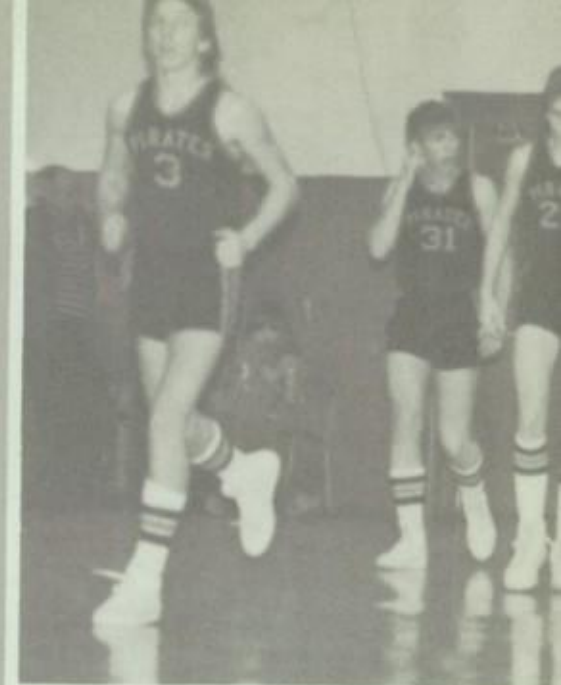

The Crawford Pirettes captured the Bi-District crown for the third straight year, but were defeated this year in the Area round by Snook, 70-50. The Pirettes won the district with a 9-1 record and defeated Holland, 40-35 in Bi-District to advance to Area. The girls posted a 17-8 season record. They participated in three tournaments and won a trophy in each — 2nd place in the China Spring tournament and consolation trophies at B-Eddy and Crawford. Jodi Jones, Claressa Hinson, and Lisa Turner were named All-Tournament at China Spring, Wanda Weber was chosen as an All-Tournament selection at B-Eddy, and Weber and Hinson made the All-Tournament team at Crawford. During district play, the Pirettes averaged 57 points per game and only allowed 34 points per game. One of those games was a 114-29 pounding of Oglesby. Amy Hoehn and Buffy Lynch, two starters, will be lost to graduation.

NET WORK

BASKETBALL! J.V. STYLE

The Junior Varsity girls were short on numbers this year, but played with a lot of enthusiasm and came away with several wins on the year. Team members were (from l to r) Marianne Windsvoll, Brenda Thompson, Rachelle Meyer, Melissa Martinka, Barbara Sanders, Amy Abel, Jennifer Lilly. The team was coached by Mr. Love.

Top: Sandra Thompson, Lisa Wendt, Julie Holmes, Lori Weber, Sandy Holmes, Leonard Love-Coach. Bottom: Alisa Cook, Robin Allison, Tisha Reeves, Lisa Thompson, Amy Cook

JR. HIGH BASKETBALL

Both Jr. High teams experienced successful seasons this past year. The girls polished off a fine season by going undefeated in district play, and the boys finished in the middle of the pack in district but played very competitive basketball. Many of these players will be graduating into high school next year and should provide Crawford High School with basketball excitement in the upcoming years.

JUST A SWING IN

The Pirate Baseball Team had a very successful year under the direction of Coach Gary Walker and the leadership of three seniors: David Meyer, Tim Brooks, and Paul Valentine. For the first time in a number of years, the Pirates reached the Class A Playoffs, finally losing out to Lago Vista, 13-3, in the Area round. Crawford sailed through district play with an impressive 5-1 record and a first place finish. They registered 16-3 and 9-6 wins over rival Valley Mills, 21-3 and 11-1 wins over Riesel, and a 4-2 win over Bruceville-Eddy. Their only loss in district was a 10-7 setback at the hands of Bruceville-Eddy. The Bi-District playoff game pitted the Pirates against the Holland Hornets at Temple Wildcat Field. The Pirates' bats came alive to produce 18 runs and an 18-8 win. The Area game was played at Southwestern University Field in Georgetown. At the time of this writing the All-District selections had not yet been announced.

BI-DISTRICT CHAMPS

WHAT A RACKET

Rick Gauer was the lone tennis player to represent Crawford this year. He won the silver medal at district, losing in the finals to Steve Randolph of Chilton, 7-6, 2-6, 2-6.

At regional competition, Rick was defeated by Bobby Lumpkins of Agua Dulce by a count of 6-1, 3-6, 0-6. This was the second year in a row that Rick had qualified for regional competition.

TEE TIME

The Crawford Golf Team experienced a successful year. The team placed 2nd at district, qualifying them for regional. At district, Greg Guthrie and Kevin Engelbrecht placed 2nd in individual honors, each shooting a 95. In the regional round, the team placed 5th out of 11 teams. Greg Guthrie finished as one of the top ten individualists.

BOYS TRACK

The Boys' Track Team competed in many meets this year. The district meet was held at B-Eddy. Crawford got fine showings from several members of the team at the district contest. Team members were Richard Westerfeld, David Williams, James Sneed, Mark Wiethorn, Terrell Miller, and Scott Snyder.

GIRLS TRACK

The 1985 Pirette Track Team was composed of four girls: Penny Preston, Claressa Hinson, Kelli VanDenBerg, and Stacey Wheeler. The team gave a good effort at the district track meet, with Kelli VanDenBerg once again reaching the regional competition. The team was coached by Mr. Love.

ORGANIZATIONS

PARADING

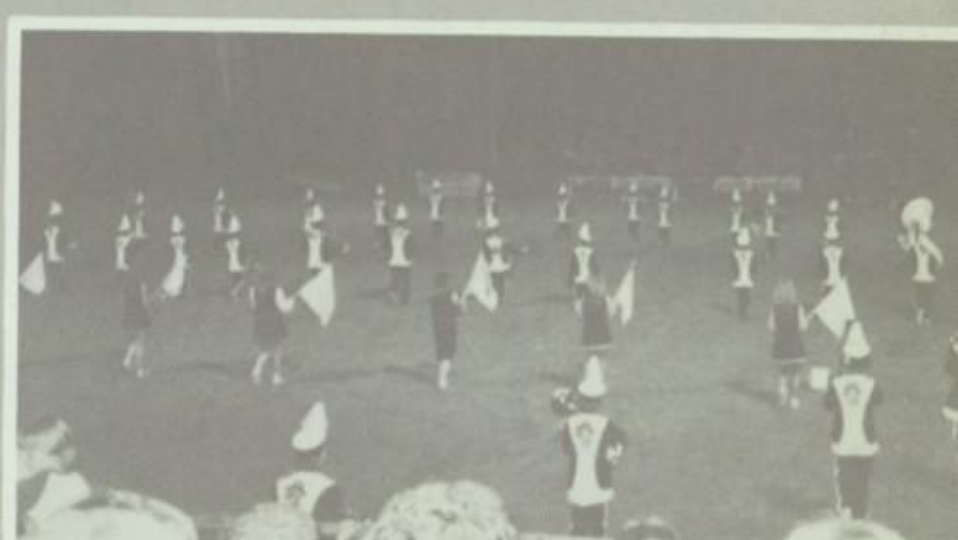

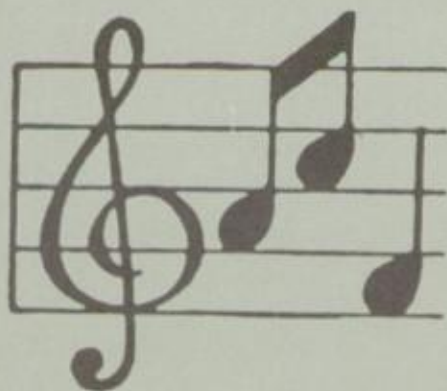

The 1984-85 Pirate Band, under the direction of band director Ken Harris, participated in more events during the year than any other Pirate band. In addition to providing halftime entertainment at the football games, the band also marched in several parades. They marched in the Masonic Lodge Parade in Crawford in September. The next marching appearance was in the Heart of Texas Fair and Rodeo Parade in Waco in October. In November, the band participated in the U.I.L. Marching Contest and received the highest ranking of any Class A band there. The band also took part in the U.I.L. Concert and Sight Reading Contest in April at Connally.

The Yearbook staff began the year with only three experienced members, but the new members quickly caught on and we all worked as one to put together yet another "Pirate" yearbook for everyone to enjoy. The staff hopes that you enjoy this year's edition as you turn the pages through the many memories of the 1984-85 school year.

ANNUAL STAFF

Let's see. I'll draw this here, and this here, and ...

Remember, Cheryl, don't look at your hands.

Designing a page can't be this much fun.

THE MISS CHS PAGEANT

The Miss CHS Pageant was held on April 27. The crown was awarded to Scottina Perry and runner up was awarded to Andy Haun as Gypsy Rosa Lee.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Pres. Stephen Swift, Vice-pres. Marvin Kegerreis, Sec. Lisa Turner, Treas. Kevin Westerfield

Jr. representatives: Stacie Hill, Joley Johansen
Sr. representatives: Kim Engelbrecht, Renee Roe

This past year was the first year that Crawford has had a Student Council. The officers and reps. held many meetings and worked hard to improve Crawford High School.

Soph. representatives: Randy Behringer, Kevin Engelbrecht;
Fresh. reps.: Melissa Martinka, Barbara Sanders

One of Crawford's Exchange Students this past year was Marianne Windsvoll, a 16 year old from Norway. Although she had completed her schooling in Norway, she came to Crawford as a Senior. While here at Crawford, she participated in basketball and the Beta Club. Marianne said that she enjoyed her year here and will miss everyone.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Hamburgers, Football, and Dr. Pepper
 Being an Exchange Student is really something, you see,
 A new lifestyle, a new language, a new family for me.
 Some of the values I learnt to define,
 Are "Taking it easy" and "Having a good time"
 ... Football games, bonfire and Pirate Pride
 ... American glue, marching in band, and a 3-wheeler ride.
 And then graduation, the trip, and the Ball;
 What's left to say: "I'll miss ya'll!"

MEMORABLE MOMENTS

On May 10, the Jr.-Sr. Prom was held at the Crawford Community Center. Chicken fried steak with all the trimmings was served and the reading of the Prophecy and Will followed. There was a dance after the banquet, and most everyone had a good time. The Seniors of '85 would like to thank the Jrs. for giving them a Prom.

COLOR MY WORLD

The Eighth Grade graduated from Junior High during the high school commencement exercises. Lisa Wendt was valedictorian, and Keith Meyer was salutatorian. Other honor graduates were Kelly Wigley, Randy Smith, Dennis Grammer, and Amy Cook. Mr. Leonard Love presented their diplomas.

SENIOR TRIP — 1985

The 1985 Senior class took their senior trip to Biloxi, Mississippi, and New Orleans, Louisiana. Everyone had lots of fun and saw many new and interesting sights.

Do you think they are posing?

The graduation class departed from Crawford High School at 11:00 p.m. on May 24, 1985. From there they rode to Houston and finally arrived at Biloxi at noon the next day. Many went wild and no one could keep the excitement down. They visited the Biloxi beaches and bought out all the tourist shops. On Monday, May 27, they hit the streets of New Orleans. Everyone had fun (some more than others).

The trip ended when they arrived back in Crawford at 6:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Let's take a break!!!

Taking it easy!!!

WILL OF CLASS OF '85

David Meyer wills to Kevin Westerfield a survival kit consisting of a jack with an alarm that will alert him the truck is jacked up so he will not drive off. Also a space Lug Wrench so he won't have to use a pair of pliers.

Paul Valentine wills to Greg Holmes the ability to hit a can with a rock instead of the back of his head.

Kim Engelbrecht leaves Brent Meyer the ability to remember what he had for lunch.

Amy Hoehn leaves Claressa Hinson the address to Dear Abby and the ability not to have bow-legged kids.

Renee Roe leaves Alice Ledesma the ability to date tall guys without wearing heels.

Sophie Ledesma leaves Sherry Neill some solid advise . . . Please stop telling us the same story over, and over, and over, and over . . .

Marianne Windsvoll leaves Vickie Bishop the ability to speak Norwegian fluently.

Marilyn Fulp and Renee Roe will to Mark Wiethorn the ability to eat all the food on his plate.

Marvin Kegerreis wills to Larry Morris the ability for him not to have asthma attacks on the football field during his senior year.

David Meyer wills to Kelli VanDenBerg the ability to jump on a trampoline without losing her shorts. Also the ability to tell the truth about those unwanted hickeys, stating "Even I can think of something better than rope burns." Also a 500 lb. of birdseed to get her through her senior year.

Paul Valentine wills to Greg Culverhouse the ability to not get frustrated when he calls him "goofy" at those unexpected moments, and the ability not to purchase female underpants from Skaggs and display them to his friends.

Amy Hoehn leaves Lisa Turner the post position, so she can knock around all the guards — with her upper body.

Marvin Kegerreis wills to Dennis Neill the ability not to eat rotten meat.

Cheryl Massie wills to Hilda Asevedo the ability to speak Spanish as well as she does. Also the ability to speak where everyone can understand her.

Rick Gauer wills to Richard Westerfeld his marvelous collection of funny jokes. Someone has to carry on the tradition of good humor.

Brent Kimbrough leaves Becky Ray the ability not to say anything to people whom she catches cheating on that person's boyfriend.

Darrell Durrence leaves Randy Westerfield this song by ZZ Top, "He's Got Legs, and He Doesn't Know Where to Put Them!"

Andy Haun wills to Stacie Hill his locker #37 downstairs, so that in the future when her leg, arm, and fingers are in a cast again, she won't have to look for some strong guys to carry her upstairs to her locker in the English room.

Ross Flynn leaves Wes Preston one lock pick set, one pair of gloves, and his lawyers.

Greg Guthrie wills to Lane Westerfield his membership at KTA, and his karate equipment for when Lane is in need of some training, plus his dynamic ability to HOY somebody when he is in trouble!

Karen Williams wills to Joley Johansen the ability to take chemistry and answer every question that Mr. Love throws at her.

Buffy Lynch wills to Jodi Jones all her unused make-up and the ability to know how to apply it in order to replace Buffy as the most beautiful girl in the senior class.

Kim Engelbrecht wills to Lisa Mangum the ability to make decisions, to drive by Steve Rabe's house and to stop into Shell's for gum. Also the ability to not get too excited over the two guys in the song "I'm So Excited." O don't forget to go by Wendy's.

Andy Haun wills to Jay Zimmerman the ability to buy decent-sized fitting shirts, because his are always too tight.

Kim Engelbrecht wills to Wanda Weber her new attitude, the ability to go parking by herself, and the ability to get McFried.

The Senior Class of 1985 wills to Cynthia Gregory the ability to walk without wobbling.

Darrell Durrence wills to Rhonda Golson the ability to get to school every day two seconds before the bell rings.

Rick Gauer wills to Johnny Pricer his music folder with the music in alphabetical order so every time the band plays a song we don't have to wait on him to find the song.

Tim Brooks wills to Geoffrey Glover the ability to close the shower curtains when he takes a shower.

Since Terry Shaw is so quiet, Marilyn Fulp leaves her the ability not to be shy in a crowd.

Stephen Swift leaves to Trae Crawford a super 8 mm film projector.

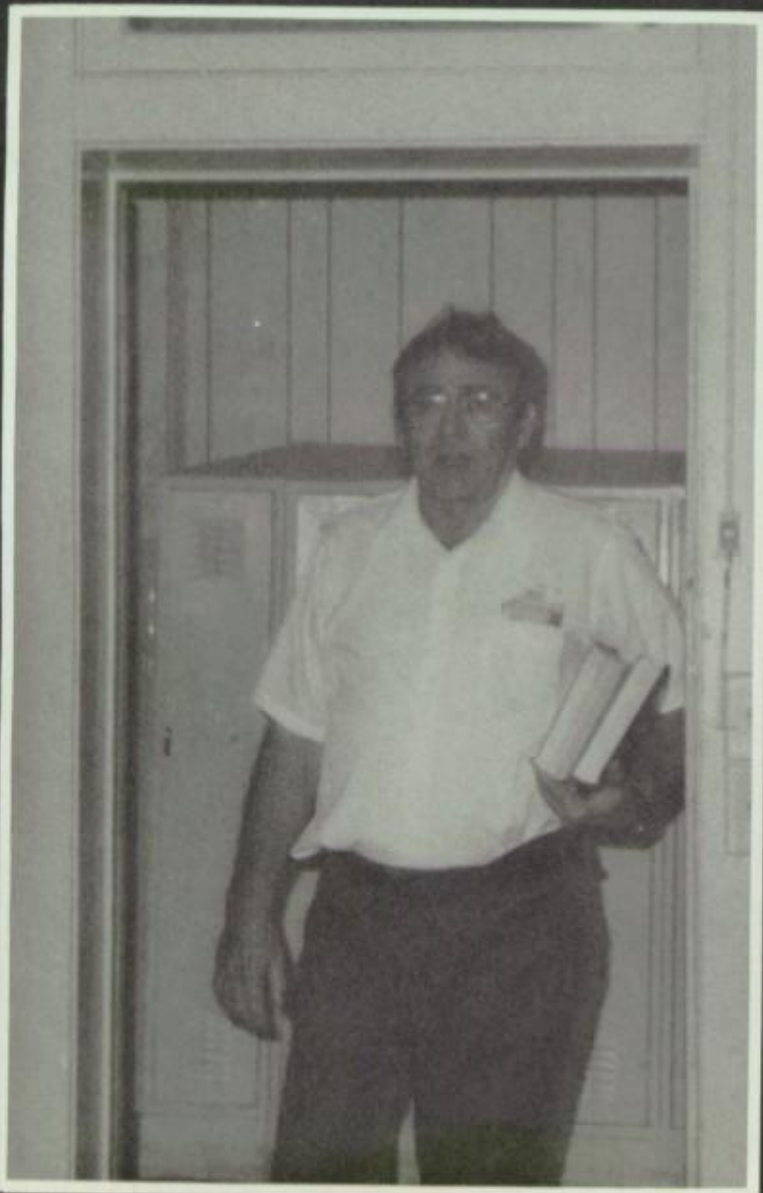

Darrell Durrence leaves to Marvin Hickey the ability to get from Crawford halfway to McGregor in 30 seconds.

REMEMBER WHEN

in the 6th. grade, we all got licks for shooting spit wads . . . Kim G. and Paul got in a fist fight in the 8th. grade because of the incident at the progressive dinner . . . all of the guys broke all the girls' hairbrushes . . . Kim G. was put in the trash can, set in the middle of the hall, and Michael D. knocked the can over . . . everyone got in trouble in the 8th. grade . . . Kim G. and Donna got licks for skipping out . . . Karen got expelled for bringing beer on the bus . . . Kim E. had her birthday party at Donna's house . . . Darrell poked Rick in the head with scissors while they were making Santa Clauses in the 4th. grade . . . Kim E. was jealous because Amy had a green apple and everyone else had red ones so she poked holes in Amy's, and the next day, it was rotten . . . David broke his tooth because Brent made him faint . . . our elementary romances . . . we had Mrs. Dice for a substitute and she went to sleep; we sneaked outside and she caught us . . . Ross played chicken with a train — and lost . . . the guys used to play missile launch with their typewriters . . . we built the bonfire and Buffy pretended to see a skunk, and everyone ran like lightning to get away . . . Andy was roasting hot dogs at the bonfire, and Ross was doing doughnuts around him in his car . . . Cheryl got a lick from W. Harris for using profanity . . . Marilyn Sue walked through the glass door at the Christmas party at Martin's . . . Darrell and Renee "went together" in 8th. grade . . . Darrell was Humpty Dumpty in the Coronation . . . David Meyer blew flour in Karen's face . . . Brent got licks for skipping out to settle an argument.
